CAPITAL REGION VEGAN NETWORK AND RED ROBIN SONG ANIMAL SANCTUARY AND GUEST HOUSE COLLABORATE

VEGAN ORGANIZATIONS WORK TOGETHER TO SAVE ANIMALS AND CELEBRATE SPRING

NEW LEBANON, NEW YORK Capital Region Vegan Network (CRVN) and Red Robin Song Animal Sanctuary and Guest House will collaborate on March 16th to celebrate the coming of Spring and advocate for all creatures.

Members of CRVN will work in collaboration with Lisa Robinson-Redd and Jeff Redd from Red Robin Song Animal Sanctuary to paint the bunny hutch, known locally as Fluffle Fortress, so that it is ready for the rabbits' Spring debut. Members will also put up fencing and clean the barn.

For more information on how to collaborate with Capital Region Vegan Network contact info@albanyvegans.org.

Red Robin Song Animal Sanctuary provides a forever home for rescued farm and domestic animals, protecting them from abuse, neglect and exploitation. They also create a natural environment for and rehabilitate injured and orphaned beavers and prepare them for release back into the wild. In addition, they work to educate the public about the many things they can do to make this a better world for animals while striving to improve our planet and the health of humankind.

Capital Region Vegan Network empowers our community to adopt and maintain a vegan lifestyle through outreach, education, support, and advocacy.
