FREE VEGAN FESTIVAL FEATURES 100 EXHIBITORS, EXPERT SPEAKERS, AND MORE
Capital Region Vegan Network hosts area's largest celebration of all things vegan

ALBANY, NEW YORK On Sunday, September 8, 2019 from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Capital Region Vegan Network will host the 11th annual Albany VegFest featuring vegan food and products, along with a diverse group of speakers and entertainers at the Albany Capital Center (55 Eagle Street) in Albany, NY. The event is free and open to the public. Suggested donations of $5 are welcome.

This landmark local event will feature a robust and varied lineup of speakers, entertainers, and exhibitors, including a keynote address from Haile V. Thomas. Albany VegFest will include a VegFest PLUS experience and free commemorative tote bags for the first 100 attendees. The annual event is the leading vegan festival in the Capital Region, and will feature vegan foods, 100 exhibitors showcasing vegan and plant-based products and services, expert speakers, entertainers, a children's zone, and more. For a full list and description of exhibitors, speakers, panelists, and entertainers, please visit: <https://capregionvegans.org/albany-vegfest/>

Albany VegFest is possible thanks to the support of numerous local and national organizations and is hosted by Capital Region Vegan Network, the area's largest and longest-running local not-for-profit empowering the Capital Region to adopt and maintain a vegan lifestyle through outreach, education, support, and advocacy. For more information about Albany VegFest and its sponsoring organization, please see the CRVN website at www.capregionvegans.org.
